

MEET TOMORROW'S LEADERS & ENTREPRENEURS

VOLUNTEER AS A COMPETITIVE
EVENT JUDGE AND INVEST IN OKLAHOMA'S FUTURE WORKFORCE

JOIN US THIS APRIL

Join us at the Oklahoma FBLA State Leadership Conference and share your expertise and advice with the next generation of business leaders. Students need your experience, wisdom, and stories to become the best leaders they can be. Judging is easy, because you already have the skills and expertise needed to do it. Judging competitive events requires a one-day commitment, and you'll be guiding students towards success in college and their future careers. Come for a few hours or make it an annual event – either way, leave knowing you made an impact.

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) was founded in 1942 by Dr. Hamden L. Forkner of Columbia University with the motto of “Service, Education, and Progress.” In over 75 years of continuous service FBLA concentrates in the area of business leadership, technology, and entrepreneurship. FBLA has more than 20 million alumni and 250,000 students in 7,000 state and local chapters in the USA and abroad competing in over 140 business, STEM-related, and entrepreneurship competitions. FBLA’s mission is to inspire and prepare students to become community-minded business leaders in a global society through relevant career preparation and leadership experiences.

HOW STUDENTS COMPETE

FALL | SELECT

Students choose from over 60 competitive event categories, ranging from personal finance to digital animation.

WINTER | PRACTICE

Using skills learned in the classroom, students prepare for competition by studying, preparing their materials, practicing, and sometimes competing at the region level.

SPRING | COMPETE

Students advancing to state competition will put their skills to the test at the SLC. As a judge, you will meet FBLA's best and brightest members as they present the projects they have been working on all year.

SUMMER | SHOWCASE

Oklahoma's top winners will head to NLC to compete for a winning spot on the International stage.
