Dress Code

Delegates Attending Oklahoma FBLA Sponsored Activities

The following guidelines have been developed to clarify the dress code used at all FBLA conferences (regardless of location).

DRESS CODE

Projecting a professional image is vital for business leaders to demonstrate respect for clients, colleagues, and others. This policy is to provide guidance for conference attendees—students, advisers, and guests. Professional business attire is required at all general sessions, competitive events, exhibits, regional meetings, workshops, and other activities unless otherwise indicated in conference materials.

Conference name badges are considered part of the dress code and must be worn at all conference functions. For safety reasons, do not wear conference badges outside of the conference area. The dress code is gender neutral.

FBLA recognizes that exceptions may need to be made and will work with advisers on a case-by-case basis to accommodate requests. Judges Needed

The Oklahoma FBLA Business & Career Events Program requires an extraordinary amount of effort, work, and volunteer spirit to be successful and truly prepare students for career achievement. The more volunteers available, the easier, less time-consuming, and more efficient it is for everyone.

If you have chaperones, contacts, or colleagues that can judge events, we would love to get them involved. Use the QR code on the right to register as a judge. If you have any questions, please contact partner@oklahomafbla.org for details.

Note: Advisers are not able to serve as judges but will likely be assigned to assist with an event room.

LCD Projectors/Screen

No LCD Projectors and/or Screens will be provided for performance events this year.

Avoid Common Registration Frustrations!

- READ THIS REGISTRATION PACKET IN DETAIL! Assign it for extra credit homework for chapter officers so multiple members of your chapter are familiar with SBLC requirements and procedures.

- READ THE NATIONAL FBLA COMPETITIVE EVENTS GUIDELINES online. Note that Oklahoma refers to National Guidelines for all rating sheets and event regulations.
- Follow-up with the district or business office to make sure the fees will be paid on time.
- Print all forms, confirmations, and correspondence for your records and bring them with you to the SBLC!
- You will receive an invoice from Oklahoma FBLA.

- Carefully review FBLA Dress Code Policy and Code of Conduct standards with your students before you arrive for the SBLC. Dress code violations need not be a reason for competitors to be disqualified from competition.
- Only checks should be mailed to: PO Box 1440, Owasso, Oklahoma 74055.
- Email Competitive Event questions to statedirector@oklahomafbla.org.

Adviser Reminders

As leaders and teachers of young professionals, it is important that we prepare our students for this upcoming event. The following information will help you to plan for the State Business Leadership Conference and prepare your students with important information about the conference.

Code of Conduct/Curfew

Oklahoma FBLA has established a specific Participant Code of Conduct. Please go over the Code carefully with your students prior to the conference. While attending the conference, please keep in mind that each adviser will need to establish a curfew for their students. It will also be the adviser's responsibility to conduct room checks each night at the hotel to enforce the chapter curfew.

Chapter advisers are responsible for the conduct of their chapter members. Unfortunately, simply checking to make sure your students are in their rooms at curfew does little to ensure they will stay there. Therefore, it is recommended that advisers be visible in each hall for at least one hour past the published curfew.

Onsite Chaperoning

Having your students check in with you at least three times per day is recommended. Let your students know of your whereabouts so they can easily do this. Have your students work together to remind each other of the times and locations for their events and activities. When you are busy assisting with an activity, make sure you let your students know where your assignment will be and have them write it down in their programs.

Promote a positive spin on the conference; ask them if they are having a good time. If possible, help them to have a better time by getting them more involved. Get them involved with the officer candidates or helping with a campaign; this is a great way to meet people. Remember, there is nothing like good positive reports by your group upon returning home. Remind students to thank the event staff, judges, and volunteers. They appreciate knowing their hard work has benefited the students. If you plan to use parent chaperones, let your officers plan a special way to thank them at the conference or upon your return home.

Visibility

Drop in and check on your students. Performing a "head count" at curfew time is vital. Make sure you physically see every student at curfew. Ask questions about events and have a conversation with them so you can see how they are doing. With all of this, you will know that your students have been accounted for, which helps prevent challenges. Meet challenges head-on in a positive manner! Do not let things get out of hand — do your part, tactfully. Ask other advisers for ideas if you are not sure how to handle minor situations. With your continued help we can help our students make the 2024 State Business Leadership Conference a memorable one.

Publicity

Your chapter and Oklahoma FBLA, in general, welcome positive publicity. Use participation for the SBLC to generate some positive publicity. It is always nice for the public to know you have participated before you begin to earn dollars for the national competition.

Special Needs Students

Our office makes every attempt to accommodate special needs students at the conference. If you contact us prior to the conference, we can make the conference and competition as barrier free as possible. If you have students with physical challenges that make movement more difficult, please be sure to note handicapped needs (such as wheelchair accessibility). Please inform Oklahoma FBLA by March 2, 2026, of any special competition needs that may be required.
